Families

in recovery workshop

Join us each Monday evening for a workshop for families with loved ones suffering from addiction. Workshops are headed by Nina Dreyer, LCSW, Clinical Director of Encompass Recovery, an addiction outpatient treatment center, and will bring panels, speakers, and actual therapy sessions to families in need of recovery.

When/Where

Every Monday Night @ 6:30PM

Families of addicts are thrust into a world they often didn't even know existed, let alone are able to navigate--especially in times of emotional trauma.

Come meet people who have been through such trials and who are treating those who are. Come find the tools, resources, and support you'll need to heal your family and your loved one.
